

SCAN ME

The purpose and formation of our foundation is to preserve, safeguard and showcase private collections and ensure that comics, books, art and collectibles are secured for future generations to enjoy.

Ryan Liebowitz

The youngest son of the late comic retail pioneer Bill Liebowitz, founder of Golden Apple Comics, the world-famous comic shop to the stars in Los Angeles, CA since 1979. He has worked in non-profit and private sectors in the areas of event coordination, catering and retail management with over 30 years of experience in multiple cities including Los Angeles, Las Vegas and New York. Co-founder of Golden Apple Productions specializing in publishing and tv/film projects as well as Golden Apple Online, Inc., an expansion of his retail empire into worldwide sales through ecommerce. Currently running day-to day operations and forging the company into new technology with the formation of a virtual reality company.

Kendra Liebowitz

Wife of Golden Apple Comics co-owner Ryan Liebowitz, current CFO and has dedicated over 20 years working in the comic industry. Previously, a very successful career in long form programming working for major television stations and companies generating millions of advertising dollars. In addition, she worked in fundraising for two years on AIDS Walk Los Angeles and New York campaigns, coordinating volunteers and helping to raise money for research and medical support.