Exhibitor information

Remember space is limited, tables are sold as first come first served. The longer you have been an exhibitor with CalComicCon the more likely you will get the same spot. If you attended the last show you may have the option for the same location but only if you pay by the deadline and the space hasn't already been assigned.

Location:

The 2017 California Comic Convention will be located at the Yorba Linda Civic Center in Yorba Linda, CA. 4501 Casa Loma CA 92886 on January 29th

This is just miles from Disneyland, Knott's Berry Farm, Newport Beach, and Laguna Beach and is in the heart of Orange County CA, otherwise known as the O.C... You may sign up for Exhibitor Tables by returning a signed contract and payment in full. We regret that we are unable to accept partial payments or deposits.

Lodging is available at many locations within a short distance from the Civic center. See web site www.CalComicCon.com for more information.

Fees:

Exhibit tables are 8' with 4' back space and two chairs. Tables are $200 each. You are required to collect sales tax for the State of California and therefore need a valid CA resale Number. Tables will not be held past 16th December 2016 unless paid in full.

Sales Tax:

The State of California requires that all vendors selling merchandise at CalComicCon to obtain a valid California resale License. Licenses can be obtained for free at <http://www.boe.ca.gov/pdf/boe400spa.pdf>. This link has been posted on the website for your convenience. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to obtain this Certificate. Failure to do so may result in the State Board of Equalization levying a fine on the exhibitor selling at this event. The California Comic Convention will not be held responsible for an exhibitor's failure to obtain this certificate and will not issue any refund to any exhibitor who is unable to exhibit per the State of California.
